PETER SETON HENRY.

The body of Col. Peter Seton Henry, brother of Rev. John Henry of New Brunswick, N. J., and Lieut. Henry of the United States Navy, was found on Gravesend Beach, near Coney Island, on Thursday last. Col. Henry was a native of Albany and studied and practiced law in that city until his removal to this, and his acceptance of a position in the Auditor's Bureau of the New York Custom House. This place he held many years, and under all administrations, until the present incumbent of the office of Collector of the Port saw fit, without any reason, to remove him, on the 1st of last July, without a moment's warning.

PETER SETON HENRY

Possibly son of Robert R. Henry and Isabella (Seton) Henry.

Robert R. Henry was a merchant of Albany, trustee of the First Presbyterian Church of Albany 1807 to 1815, probably died before 1818, as he is not mentioned in the directory of that year.
